Wooden Boat Guild of Tasmania Inc.
PO Box 28, Battery Point, Tasmania 7004

17th April 2002

Please note the changed venue for the next meeting in 2002

The W B Guild will next meet on Monday 13th May 2002 at the Mariners' Cottage, 42 Napoleon Street, Battery Point, at 7.30 pm

Have a beer at the Shipwrights Arms, then proceed down the street and turn right into Napoleon St. After the row of cottages on your left, turn left into the lane that leads through the park to the slipways. Stay on the top road and stop in the car park at the end of the road. The Mariners' Cottage is in the middle of the park.

On Sunday 21st April there will be a rowing day at New Norfolk. Rendezvous at 10:00 a.m. at the boat ramp next to the caravan park. From Hobart at New Norfolk continue past the first roundabout and then take the first turn on the right. Bring a picnic lunch.

Terra Linna update

The Terra Linna was recently moved into its shed at Peter Linsay's place, Brookfield, Margate. At the last WBG meeting Andy Gamlin showed his magnificent drawings of the lines, planking and sail plan of the boat.

These will eventually be submitted to the Australian Maritime Museum after the historical documentation is completely collected and collated.

Available for hire for members' use is a portable tent/gazebo with a strong metal frame, easy and fast to erect.. The hiring fee is $5 for a few days. Contact Ainesley Smith 6239 9533

The TeePooKanar on its new trailer is available for use by members of the WBG and the public.

Contact Millard Ziegler 62 235 472 if you want to borrow it.

July 20-21 or July 27-28: visit to boat yards at Port Sorell.

WBG members, their spouses, partners, families and friends are invited to make up a party to visit the Corralin which is being restored at Muddy Creek, Port Sorell. This will be an opportunity to see the construction techniques and restoration of a vintage boat and also to visit boat yards there. The trip is being arranged for the weekend of July 20-21 or July 27-28. It is envisaged that members will stay at the Sheerwater Country Club (group booking ... cheap rates) and that a dinner be arranged for Saturday night with a guest speaker. Ring Peter Higgs on 6243 7622 for more details or come to the next meeting to obtain further arrangements.

Articles are now needed for the next edition of the Rudder.
